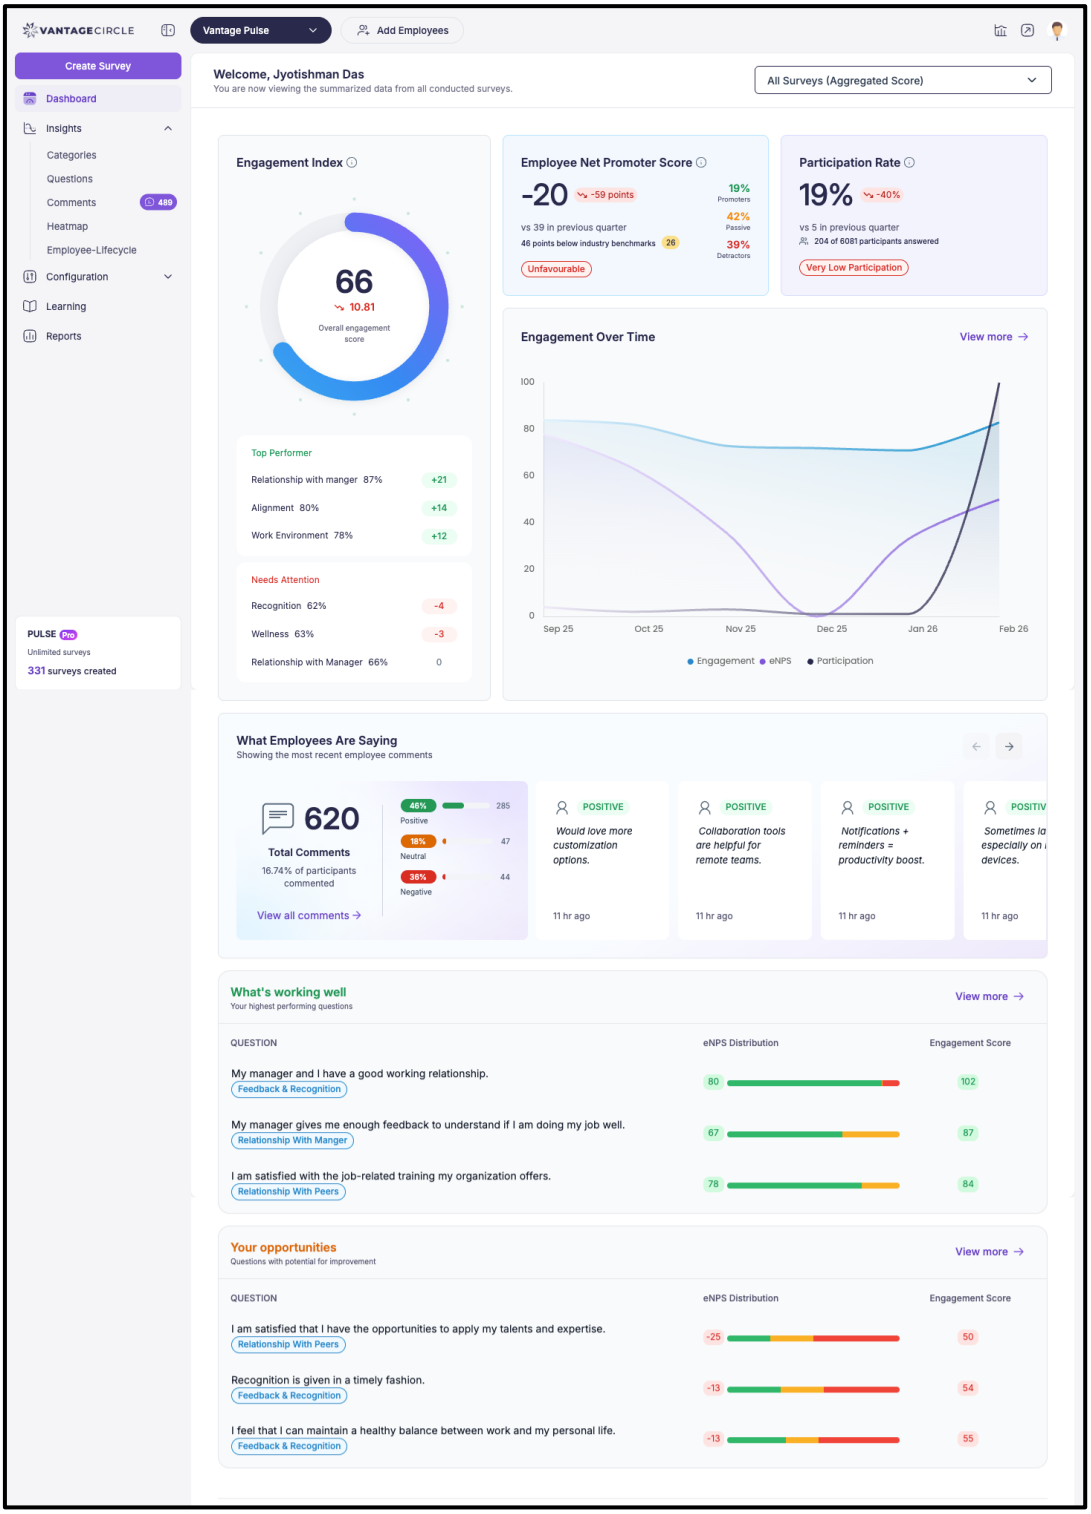
Dashboard View: This view provides HR Admins with a quick snapshot of survey scores, displaying the overall engagement, eNPS, and participation rate. Admins can also filter the data to view results for specific surveys, allowing for quick insights across multiple categories.



Create Module View:

This view enables HR Admins to design surveys flexibly. They can start from scratch, select from 25+ ready-to-use templates, or build reusable custom templates. An upcoming automation feature supports workflows for onboarding and tenure milestones. Recently used templates are also displayed for quick access.

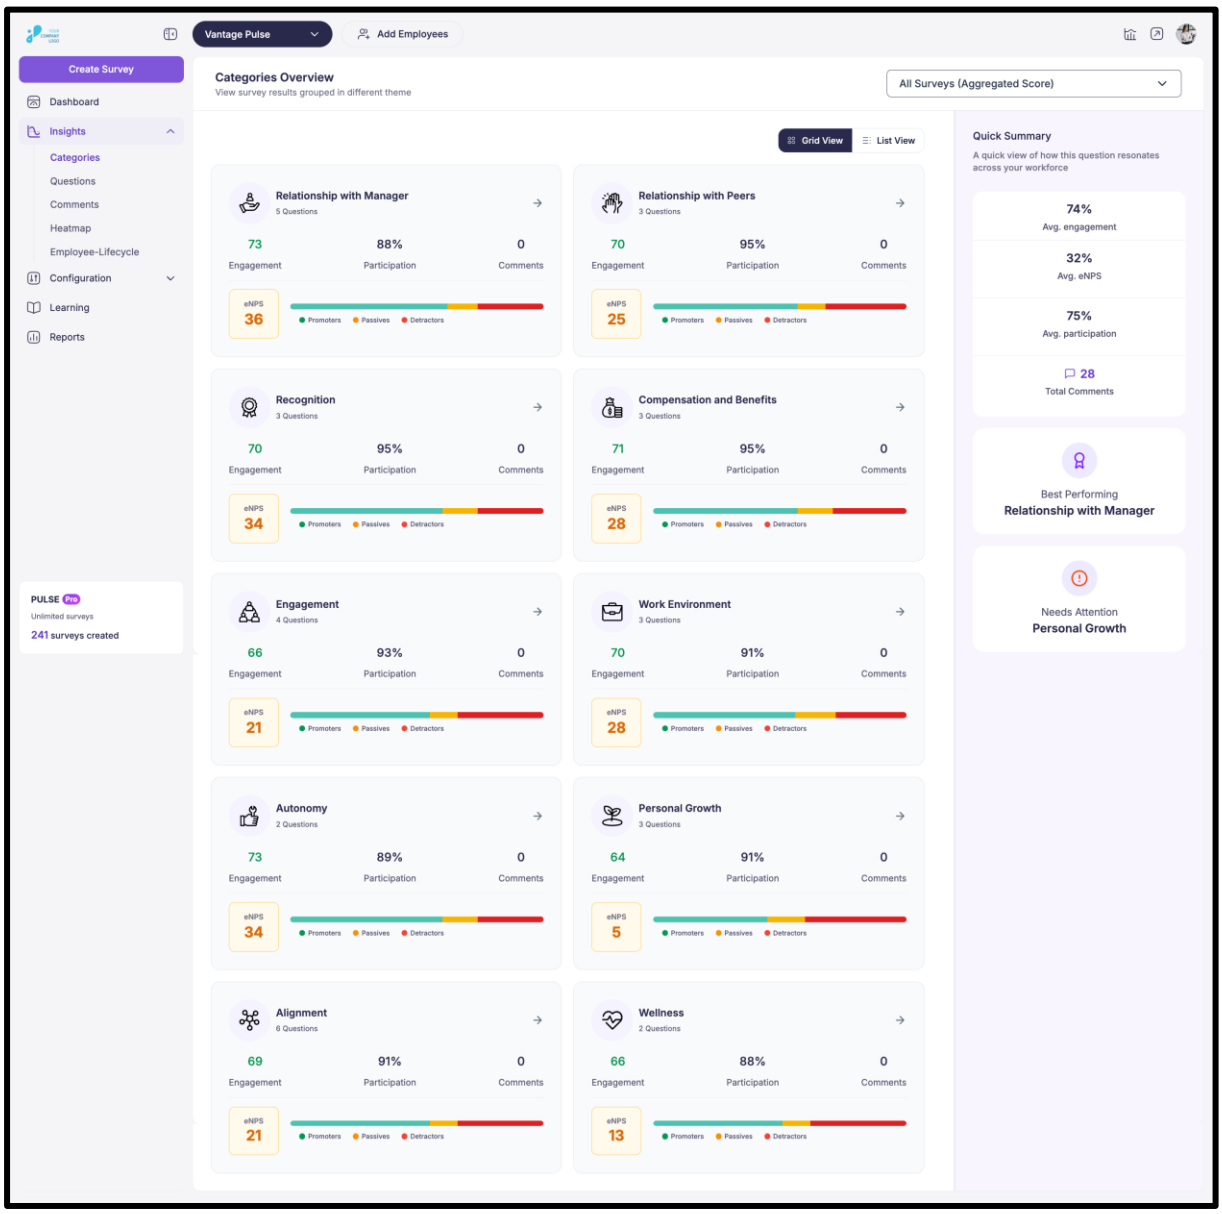
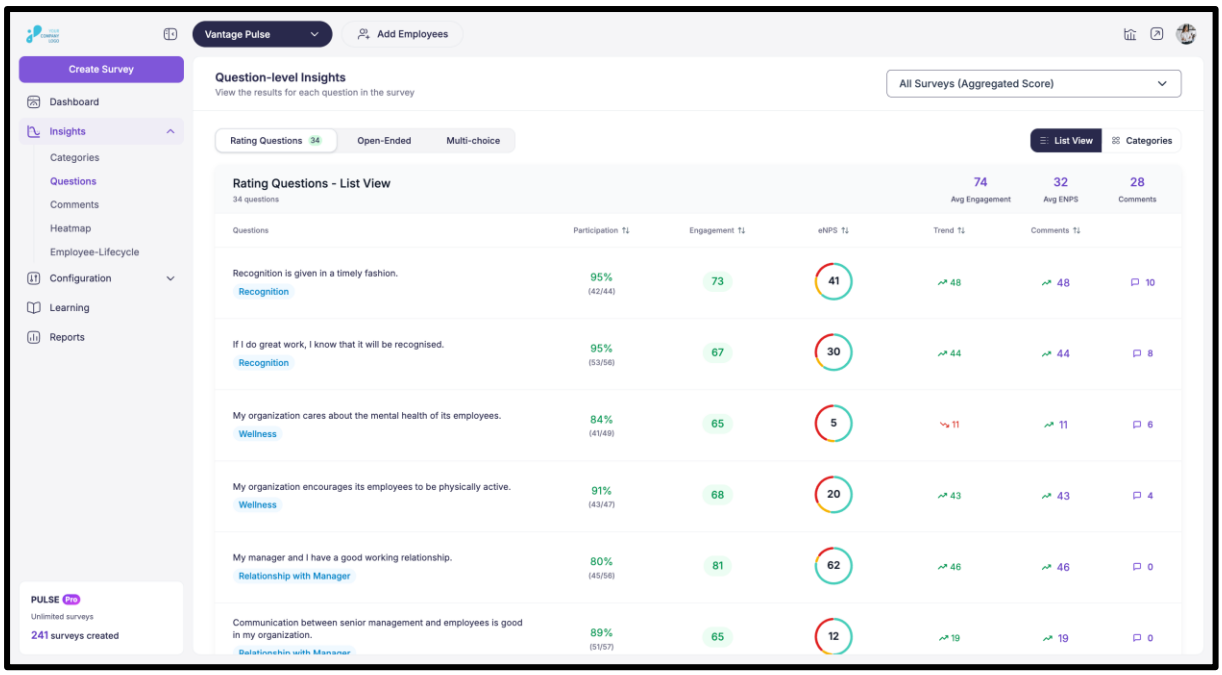
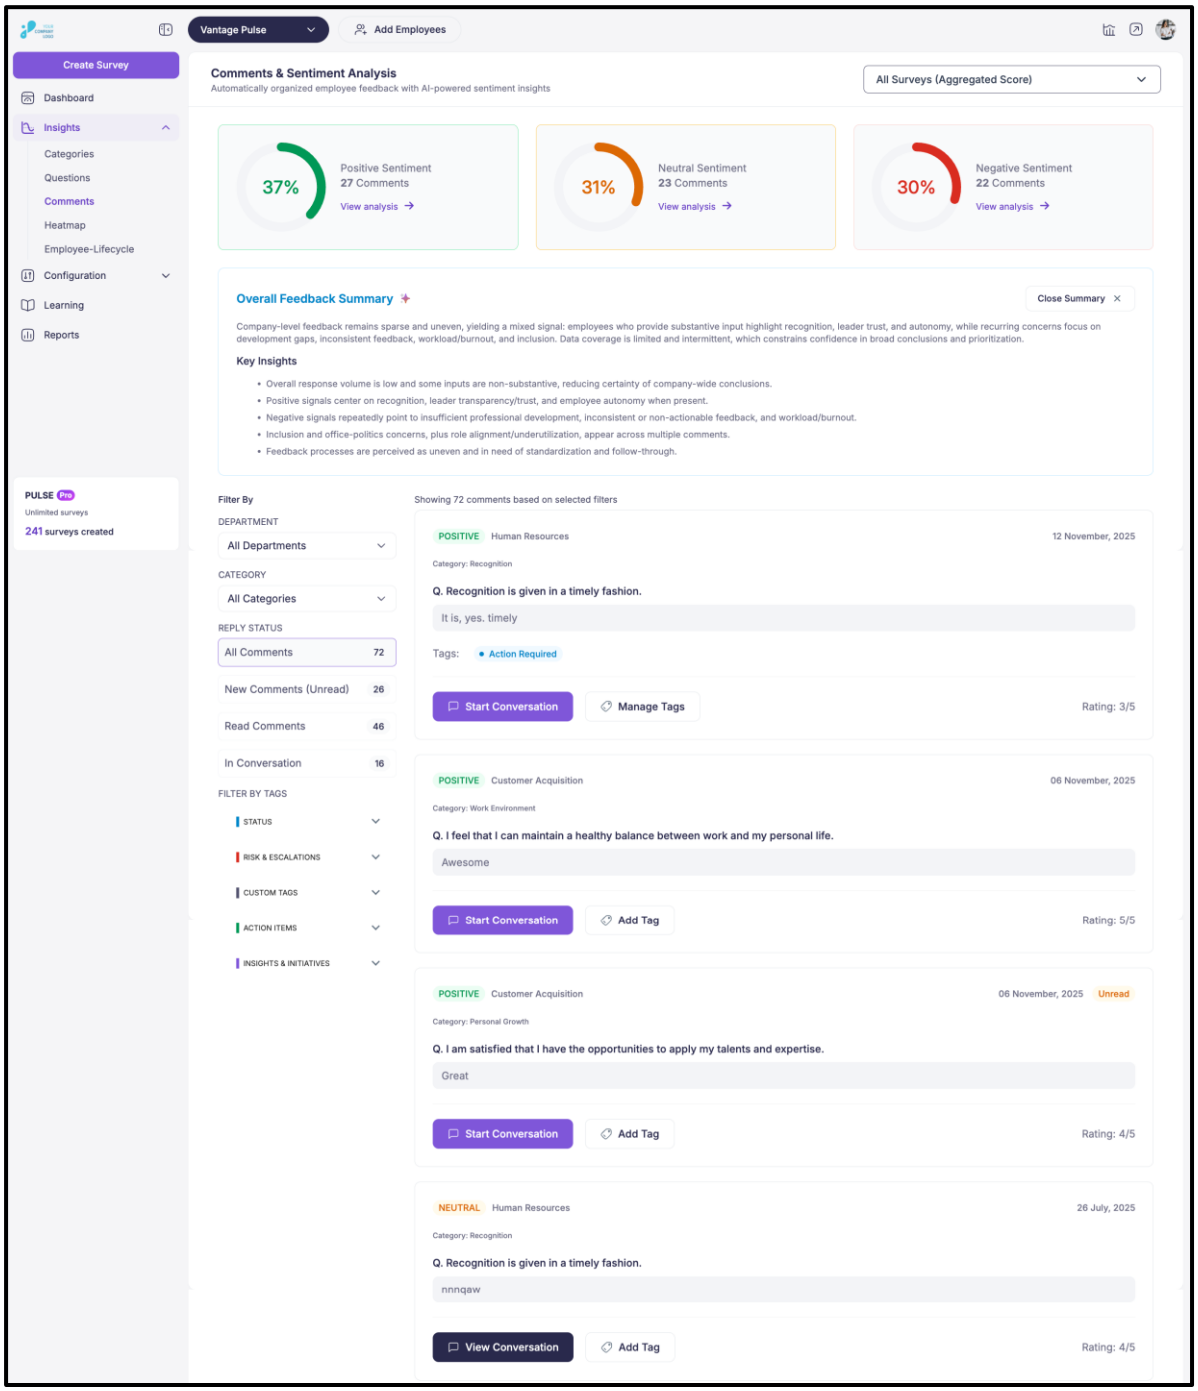
Insights → Categories Module View:
This view shows category-wise engagement, participation, and eNPS scores. It helps HR Admins quickly spot strong areas and those needing improvement, with upcoming support for multiple-choice and open-ended feedback.



Insights → Question Score Module View:
This view displays all survey questions with their engagement, participation, and eNPS scores. It enables HR Admins to compare results at a question level, making it easier to pinpoint specific issues or strengths within each survey.



Insights → Comments Module View:
This view compiles all employee comments and runs sentiment analysis to classify them as very positive, positive, neutral, negative, or very negative. It helps HR Admins review direct employee feedback, understand sentiment trends, and identify key areas of concern or appreciation.



Insights → Heatmap Module View:

This view gives HR Admins a heatmap of employee feedback across categories and departments. Filters such as country, business units, and department can be applied for deeper analysis. The color-coded scale makes it easy to spot strengths and weak areas, helping identify where specific teams or segments need attention.
